"BABY BONDS."

Tom M. Morgan, of Atlants, in a communication published elsewhere, saki why the school teachers of the state cannot be paid promptly by the issuance of county bonds in denominations of from 130 to 350, which would readily be purchased by home people.

The plan is a practical one, and was commented upon recently by The Constitution in reporting a similar plan whereby St. Paul is financing her system of improvements and keeping money at home.

The Constitution believes that the new tax equalization law will soon wipe out the ancient disgrace of delayed teachers' salvaries.

ancient distrace of delayed teachers' salaries.

If it does not the solution advanced by Mr., Morgan may well be considered.
His argument is emphatically a strong one, where it applies to finding the funds for highway construction.

It should also be possible to apply the "baby bonds" method to all funds for public expenditure, municipal or county, provided there are no legal obstacles in the way.

In St. Paul the sinking fund commission buys up the city's bonds and reissue them in small denominations bearing attractive interest rates.

The people have quickly caught on to the privilege of investing their money in an absolutely safe channel and at good remuneration.

muneration.

Since the plan was inaugurated last September St. Paul has disposed of millions of doilars' worth of bonds in this manner.

The advantage of the plan is that money is kept at home; further, the citizen whose funds are; tied up in a public bond is going to keep a hawk's eye on public expenditures. There won't be much chance for misappropriations, for recklessness or Morgan to countee and towns generally in 'Georgia.

In its broader phases we commend the plan also to the people of Atlanta.

If any inunicipality in the country needs rewamping from head to heel it is this one.

The baby bond method offers an excellant way out.

It taps a reservoir of money that otheryies largely lies unused.

It increases the per capita circulation.

It wheis civic vigilance.

These big gains are worth striving for.

The route to them is at least worthy the investigation of the poople in Georgia who do not get stage fright at Innovations in well-asfeguarded methods of transacting the public business.

If You Are a Banker

the fact that the National City Bank of New York owns and uses daily the new Encyclo-paedia Britannica is of significance for you. There must be a good business reason for it.

The bank's librarian says: "It is perfectly wonderful how much the book is consulted." Joseph T. Talbert, Vice-President of this great business institution, writes: "No scholar, teacher writer a winderst should be without it not business of business, now of any learned or lechnical profession, can afford to do without it."

Bankers, in fact, find the Britanpica a good investment as a mine of practical information by experts, in their own field. It contains, for instance, articles by financial authorities, such as:
